IS4 Daily Report April 12th

By DeSean Mclaullis and Reag Marreth

Probe-Mate Hyperspace pod being launched from the ISD Warrior, Carries Probe Droid for IS4.

War, War, War! Fighting has finally broken out between the Hammer and the Challenge at Gannaria. War on this spice-trading planet has broken out and the combat is fierce.

Challenge forces attacked Hammer forces earlier today but so far we have little information on the tides of the battle but it is the first major battle so far in this year's Imperial Storm Wargames.

Accurate representation of the ongoing conflict on Gannaria.

Meanwhile, the IS4 Wargames have been fairly silent. News on board the Warriors Fleet say that Probe Droids may have found a Challenge Fleet, information on that is limited.

Additionally it seems the local Sector Admiral, known for his alcoholic tendencies, has been found by the ISD Warrior and he has let out some information on new Turbolaser modifications, this may come in handy for the Warrior Fleet in the future

More news to come.
