BREAKING NEWS:

This is Maximus Centurios Ordo bringing you an urgent bulletin for the Imperial Storm Wargames!

The Challenge has achieved the first victory at Spar Alpha against The Warrior forces!

The battle was quick and decisive at the cost of one Victory Class Star Destroyer, The Batuu Vengeance, and one Tie Defender squadron, Black Death squad, from the Warrior forces. The Challenge only suffered a loss of an A wing squadron, Knight squad, from this battle leaving them victorious and pushing them closer to an overall win right at the start.

We do not have comments from either team captain at this time, but we do also have another bit of breaking news as The Challenge have also located The Drunken Admiral himself, and have received a boon of 500 repair points! Luck seems to be on their side for the start of Imperial Storm 4!

Will The Challenge keep up this winning streak?

Will The Warrior be able to recover fast enough?

Will The Hammer STOP ORDERING HAMMIE BEVERAGES FROM ME! THAT IS LEGION'S IDEA!!!.....cough...We will keep you up to date, as the wargames progress! Stay Tuned!
