LAMBDA IN THE NEWS

ANOTHER YEAR DOWN! NOW WE LOOK TO THE FUTURE!

2024 was a great year for Lambda! Taking a first place victory in TIE Corps in Battle and second in Raise the Flag, Lambda was a dominating force within the fleet! With the last couple months of the year, leading into January, we saw multiple pilots achieving major milestones which will see Gold Stars in the coming months. Be on the lookout!

As we move into 2025, we are greeted by our old friend, TIE Corps in Battle! Leading the charge this season is none other than the Battle Master himself, Commander LPhoenix! This season, we are defending our victorious run on the competition going back 3 Seasons, as we make a mad dash towards the coveted TUA and MUA awards.

Also coming up in the next couple months is Imperial Storm! Be on the lookout for that! There is an entire legion of the FC's best troops given the task of working through the mechanics before the start of the event! They will leave no droid unturned in their effort to make Imperial Storm the best it can be!

SQUADRON CHANGES

As any squadron in the fleet, Lambda is not immune from the constant churning of pilots through our ranks. In the wke of losing Sam Arsio to Spear squadron, we received two transfers from Delta Squadron. While I was not prepared for the speed in which the TCCOM thrust these new pilots into our ranks, I have been assured they represent the Empire's best when it comes to meticulous cleaning. If you listen closely, you can hear what seems like wamp rats scurrying inside the durasteel walls. I promise all is well. LCM GamerRat and CM Vrak are furiously scrubbing down the Wookiee pens with their toothbrushes! Give it time. They will have the area shining in no time! As you pass them in the halls of the Hammer, be sure to welcome them to the squadron!

I will be reaching out to a few of you in the coming days. Recently, we've had some no-shows to standard deployment operations. This is unacceptable and it will be dealt with using Lambda AWOL SOP 420.69.

All AWOL pilots shall be subject to the Ewok's zucchini and sharpened stick! You have been warned!

ADDITIONAL ACCOLADES

While December appears to lack the usual flair and fanfare of a Lambda medal acknowledgement, it is worth keeping in mind December tends to be a slower month, due to various ship activities and festivities. Be prepared to see a flood of awards in the next report, as a swarm of medals were awarded for the previous tour of duty and even before!

THERE ARE A BUNCH!

IN CLOSING

As always, thank you Lambda for being awesome! You are the best squadron in the fleet and without you, the TC would not be the same! Now, stop looking at me like that or I'll stun you! I'm not getting sappy! gggggrrrrrrr.... Yes yes, more reports! I promise! No, this has nothing to do with Wolve! I don't care what what EITHER of his mouths said! Get out of here before I sic my gonk on you!

Lambda, dismissed.

UTINNI!
