

CHALLENGE

THE FATHERS DAY SPECIAL

Somewhere aboard the Challenge a secret meeting is being held

Eagle will be on host duty. Thunder and inferno will be on food and drinks. Make sure we have plenty of chalquilla. Tempest and firebird will be on decorations.

Newt and I will be there to make sure everything is perfect. And Honsou, you keep him distracted while all of this is happening. Make sure he doesn't go anywhere near the cantina

We'll all be on an active com line should we need to communicate. Go tell your squad the plan and make sure he doesn't know. Any questions?

I will certainly get this rolling in Tempest! Great work and awesome idea Drummer! The galaxy needs more kids like you!

Thank you Sir, but there's no need to get over sentimental. We need to get working. We only have 3 days left. So let's not waste any time! Go brief you're squad!

Sir if I may..

Alright Eagle squad listen up. We got lots of work to do with very little time so I need all of you to pay attention.

Eagle is on host duty. That means serving food, drinks and making sure everyone is happy. We don't want what happened at last week's IS4 after party again.

Caleb, Stralen, Yubel, you guys will be going around serving food. Cupcake, Jospance, you will assure people to their seats. Rula, Marvin, you will go around and ask people what they want to drink. Graf, you'll be the music. I'll be the main host and help move the night.

Does everyone know what to do?

YES SIR!

Later in Silwar's office

So why is the cantina closed err.. it's going under maintenance is. The cantina took some damage after the IS4s after party

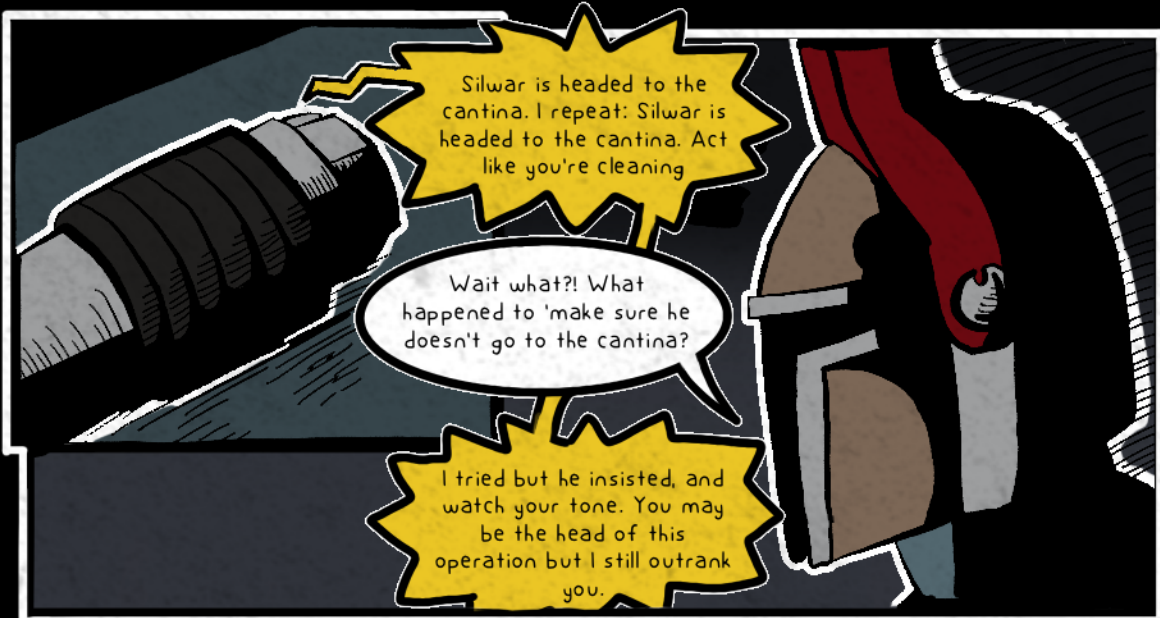

I barely remember that night. But I thought they already cleaned it up.

We want it to be extra clean for you sir. Let them clean it up. No need to go in no no we'll go. I want to see what's really goin on

I told you sir, nothing more than maintenance

If it's just maintenance, there's nothing to hide

Silwar is headed to the cantina. I repeat: Silwar is headed to the cantina. Act like you're cleaning Wait what?! What happened to 'make sure he doesn't go to the cantina'?

I tried but he insisted, and watch your tone. You may be the head of this operation but I still outrank you.

Silwar is on his way! Everyone, hide the decorations and act like your cleaning!

Ah, hello sirs! Nothings going on here. Just doing some extra cleaning!

I would believe you, but why is Tempest and Firebird cleaning? There should only be one squad on maintenance and that squad isn't even here. And why are you here? Last time I checked you weren't in Tempest or Firebird. What's going on?

Silwar, Turtle wants to speak to you.

Hmm.. I will find out what's going on

Newt, come to my office for inspection

Sir, I don't think that's necessary...

Something is happening on MY ship without me knowing. It is more than Necessary

Have a seat Newt

Is everything okay Sir?

Far from it. You see something is happening on my ship without my knowing and permission!

I can assure you Sir, nothing bad is going on.

That's not my concern. My concern is why I can't get my cantina! Why is the cantina unavailable?

We're doing a ship wide team building exercise by cleaning and repairing from last weeks IS4
after party

That was a night I try to forget. Why wasn't I told about this "team building"?

We wanted it to be a surprise!

A surprise?

Dismissed!

3 hours later in the cantina, the room is almost fully decorated

Ok everyone, it's almost Go time! We got some time to spare, so go rest up and clean yourselves up!

Thank the stars! I've been waiting for those words...

Remember, this is for Silwar. We wouldn't be putting this much work in if it were for anything else.

This is Wonderful!! He's going to love it!

I sure hope so...

Okay Honsou, bring Silwar to the cantina we're ready!

Sounds good bringing him now!

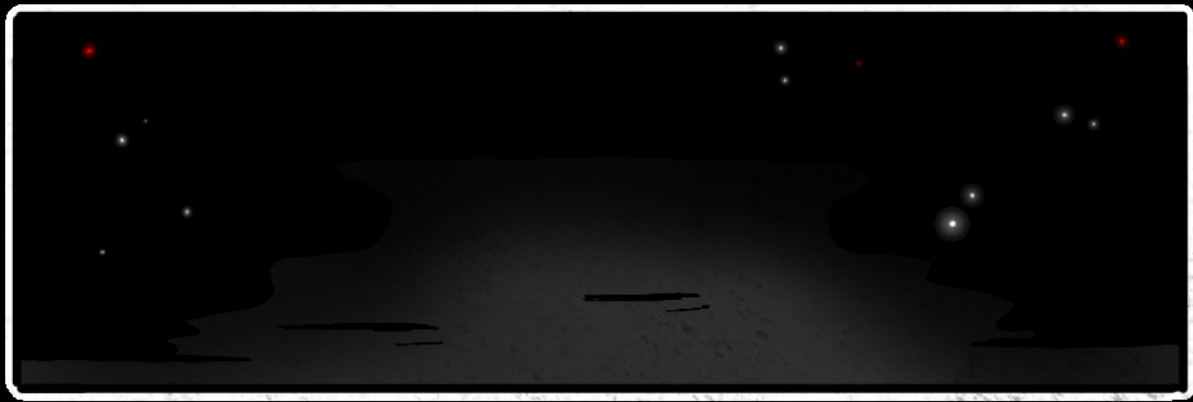

Sir it looks like the cantina is open. Shall I buy you a drink?

No need. I just need a drink. Doesn't matter who buys....

Okay I think they're coming! Everybody hide and wait for my mark to come out!

HAPPY FATHERS DAY!

So that's what this was all about!
