TCIB IS IN FULL SWING!

The Jawa stood atop his raised podium at the head of the conference table, head down, looking over the datapad in his hands.

January proved to be very productive! On top of the backlog of medals that came pouring in over the month, we saw a significant amount of activity across various aspects of the Corps! Stitches, you've done well pushing activity both in Lambda and across the battlegroup! Thank you sir! I see you've taken part in the multiple 30th anniversary celebrations and your two new members, Vrak and GamerRat in flight two seem to be working out well; the wookiee pens haven't been this clean in months. Just please keep an extra eye on that Gungan.

Kebla, I see flight three is taking charge of TCiB this season! I'd expect nothing less from the best pilots in the fleet! We'll need everything we've got to win over the TCCOM's favor this season. Commander LPhoenix, your performance is nothing short of incredible!

Mouths, er... Major Wolve, you've been logging quite a lot of combat time over the last few months. Before long, I will be announcing your impending inclusion into the Tan Fanclub. Well done! Snuggles, this doesn't go beyond this meeting room, but I enjoyed seeing you back in the cockpit. Don't look at me that way! Hopefully we can find more time to get the squad together on a more frequent basis.

With January over, we are 25% complete with TCiB. If my math is correct, we've done very well! With a participation by seven pilots, we should have a solid lead heading into round two!. If we keep this up, a season 8 victory is very possible! Keep up your amazing work!

AROUND THE FLEET

There are a lot of operations ongoing in the fleet outside of the TCiB competition. When you have the opportunity, head to the competition and combat centers to see what is available. Here are a couple notable mentions.

- 6 days remain to complete battles TIE-TC 1 through 28 and TIE-F 1 through 21 for a whole TIE Bomber load of ORAs! This is the "Where It All Began: TIE Fighter" competition, part of the 30th anniversary celebration.

- The CO Office is holding a "Weekend Shootouts" combat event from Friday to Sunday every week through 3/20/2025. Play multiplayer matches with other pilots to compete for Iron Stars and ORAs.

- In the coming months, we can expect Imperial Storm to begin. It is a month-long cooperative PvE event centered around the ongoing Emperor's Hammer storyline. The details are being worked out, but I will update you as soon as more information becomes available.

Next, let us talk about your performance over the month.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW

As you can clearly see, Lambda had a great month! As a squadron, we completed 395 historical missions and secured 77 skirmish and 301 combat victories! However, there are a few areas of note not addressed by the above charts.

- CM LPhoenix's amazing work in TCiB led him to earning 10 mission and 13 battle(battles are calculated by their number of missions) high scores! His high scores alone come to 115 MSE points, or a guaranteed Bronze Star! Outstanding job!
- The majority of you also ran or participated in a number of internal fleet competitions, including COL TheBlackxRanger and CM LPhoenix completing Lord of the TIEs! Well done!
- LC Solohan the 50th did not have any TIE-related accidents for the month!
- LCM GamerRat was awarded a certificate in Flight Operations, following completion of three IU courses. This is on top of earning two FCHG ratings, one PvP combat rating, and increasing his flight certification by three levels!
- CM Vrak's INPR has been updated! I was unaware of this before the transfer, but as you can see, we now have a Gungan among us!

IN CLOSING

January was a great month! Normally, coming into the new year we see a general slowdown, but thanks to events like the 30th anniversary celebration, the start of TIE Corps in Battle, and the continuation of pilots' personal achievement goals, we have hit the year running!

As we continue to battle for competition dominance, be on the lookout for award announcements from the TCCOM. Lambda will be receiving a number of Gold Stars for reaching pinnacle combat ratings in both PvP and PvE! There are at least three more coming to the squadron, with another potential two to three throughout the year. If you want in on this, there is no better time than now! Most PvE/PvP matches are worth multiple points towards these systems and you can achieve Gold Stars in less than half the time as in previous years!

Single player, or the Fleet Commander's Honor Guard, has not seen this "easing" of requirements, but it is very possible to earn a Gold Star for that as well, and Lambda currently has 25% of all Imperators to ever achieve the rank!

The moral of the story is this set your own personal goals and then go for it! If you have any questions or concerns, I shall be in my office. There are no dumb questions, only dumb Ewoks!

Lambda, dismissed.

UTINNI!
